Message From Our Executive Director - Tom Karnes

October is National Arts & Humanities Month (NAHM)— The arts are a national asset and should be available everywhere to everyone.

National Arts & Humanities Month is an opportunity to promote the crucial role of the arts and humanities in enhancing individual wellbeing, connecting cultures, and making our communities healthier and stronger.

Please join me in recognizing Ranilla and her staff for scheduling programs to enrich your lives. Also, please consider volunteering your time and talents to the Activities department, to make your contribution to create a vibrant community at Providence House!

Best,
Tom Karnes
